Experience

CODTECH IT SOLUTION

Python Development Intern   Feb-2025

- I worked around several Python based real life projects and showed skills in AI, ML and automation. I created a Text-to-Speech application with dynamic user input, and included machine learning models for predictions. I've also created an AI chatbot based on NLP algorithms. I also built reporting workflows automatic and made third-party API connections for real-time data visualization and analytics. These projects improved my problem solving, backend development, and data handling capabilities.
